WHAT BECOMES OF THE COIN.

In the reign of Darius gold was thirteen times more valuable, weight for weight, than silver. In the time of Plato it was twelve times as valuable. In that of Julius Cæsar gold was only nine times more valuable, owing, perhaps, to the enormous quantities of gold seized by him in his wars. It is a natural question to ask, what became of the gold and silver? A paper read before the Polytechnic Association by Dr. Stephens recently, is calculated to meet this inquiry. He says, of our annual gold product, full fifteen per cent is melted down for manufacture; thirty five per cent. goes to Europe; twenty five per cent to Cuba; fifteen per cent. to Brazil; five per cent. direct to Japan, China, and the Indies; leaving but five per cent for circulation in this country. Of that which goes to Cuba, the West Indies, Brazil, full fifty per cent, finds its way to Europe, where, after deducting a large percentage used in manufacturing, four fifths of the remainder is exported to India. Here the transit of the precious metal is at an end. Here the supply, however vast, is absorbed, and never returns to the civilized world.

The Orientals consume but little, while their productions have ever been in demand among the Western nations. As mere recipients, therefore, these nations have acquired the desire of accumulation and hoarding, a passion common alike to all classes among the Egyptians, Indians, Chinese, and Persians. A French economist states that in his opinion the former nation alone hide away $20,000,000 of gold and silver annually, and the present Emperor of Morocco is reported as so addicted to this avaricious mania that he has filled seventeen large chambers with the precious metals. The passion of princes, it is not surprising that the same spirit is shared by their subjects, and it is in this predilection that we discover the solution of the problem as to the ultimate disposition of the precious metals. This absorption by the Eastern nations has been uninterruptedly going on since the most remote historical period. According to Pliny, as much as $100,000 000, in gold, was, in his days, annually exported to the East. The balance of trade in favor of these nations is now given as $80,000,000.

A system of international coinage is proposed, and a congress has recently been held in Paris, at which the several nationalities were represented, including the United States.

If our Government shall indorse the proposed system, there will be a national change in our coinage, if we shall ever return to hard money times. The proposed standard of coinage—the franc—is equal in value to about nineteen and one fifth cents. A five franc piece is accordingly worth four cents less than the American dollar, which is our present standard of coinage. Under the proposed plan, our present half dollar would be represented by a piece worth forty-eight cents, etc.

The ancient English penny was the first silver coin struck in England. It was equal in weight to the present three-penny piece. —Christian Union.

The Chicago Tribune, one of the most violent Republican papers of the West, under the head of "The Carpet-Bagged South," or "Scalawagged States," has the following;

"The scalawag ring of Holden, Dawerse, Abbott, Jenkins and G. W. Swepson have increased the debt of North Carolina since the peace $23 000,000. The bonds of the State have declined to twenty five cents on the dollar. The Supreme Court of the State has repudiated $12 000,000 of this fraudulently negotiated debt, particularly the Chatham Railroad bonds. The debt of the State is upwards of $40,000,000, the new portion almost entirely raised for railroads, of which not more than one has ever been built a mile. The bonds of the roads have been sold, and the money sunk amongst the legislators and corporators."

"The whole policy and sole hope of the plunder set in the South is to invent and spread diabolical stories of massacres, murders, rapes, masked batteries, etc, etc, and under cover of these lies to call out the militia, and keep the better populace by intimidation from the polls. This is the game. This is the device. The object is entirely vulpine."

THE WHEAT CROP—GOOD REPORTS.—From Virginia to Georgia we have reports of an excellent wheat crop; from East Tennessee we learn that the harvesting has been going on for some time in all the counties; that some little smut is reported, indicating an abundance of rain for the growing corn crop, and that the heavy wheat is considerably tangled in some places, but that "the yield will be tremendous." In Virginia the crop is so large that the farmers are afraid that they will hardly get a compensating price for it.—But they may dismiss all such apprehensions. The European crop, doubtless, will this year be less than the average yield, and our surplus, in making up this European deficiency, will give a fair compensation to our wheat growers, and help us very much in meeting our purchases of European goods and the interest on government bonds held over the water.—At the same time, looking to our great body of bread-consumers, we rejoice that our wheat crop this year will be large enough to meet all foreign demands, without giving to the "bulls" of our home markets any chance for a corner on wheat. Let the people rejoice.—New York Herald.

Mr. Charles A. Dana, Assistant Secretary of War under Stanton, and at present editor of the New York Sun, says of Grant: "He is incompetent, lazy, neglectful of his duties, unable to comprehend them, and careless about performing them, and his administration is bad, foolish, weak, cowardly, corrupt anti American, contemptible at home, and more contemptible abroad. It is impossible to speak the truth and deny that it is so. It is impossible for an independent journalist, anxious to discharge his obligations to the people, to conceal or palliate facts so fearful and notorious."

Jessie Williams had been doing something which her mother told her she musn't do. She had been eating currants, and of course, she got her mouth all stained. That's the way she got found out. Her mother said: You know you were forbidden to eat currants! But ma, Satan tempted me! Why didn't you say, Get thee behind me, Satan? "I did say, Get thee behind me, Satan, and he went and got behind me, and pushed me right into the currant bushes."

St. JOHN'S FEMALE COLLEGE, OXFORD, N. C.

THE FALL SESSION OF THIS INSTITUTION will open the 1st Wednesday in August. Board and the entire English course, per session of 20 weeks, only $90.

Other charges moderate.

Pupils, who take only the English course, will be charged for board and English Tuition $160.

Parents and guardians will find this the cheapest FIRST-CLASS school in the South.

The buildings and grounds are unsurpassed. There are 60 rooms in the main building, with a most commodious and elegant chapel.

Hacks always at Henderson, to take pupils to the College. No charge to pupils for hack-hire.

The subscriber begs to return his thanks to the many friends of Kittrell's Springs Female College for the liberal patronage which gave to that Institution an unparalleled success. It is due to them that he should assign the following reasons for leaving that location:

1. His own CHILDREN NEGLECTED. The property at Kittrell's is too expensive to establish there a permanent school at low rates. The buildings are of wood, requiring constant repairs, more liable to fire, and erected originally as a summer resort.

2. The desire expressed by so many to have Kittrell's Springs again opened as a watering place.

3. The kind and almost irresistible overture, made by the good citizens of Oxford, to come into their midst. Every appliance of the school at Kittrell's, including pianos, furniture, &c, has been moved by them free of all charge.

4. The wide-spread and justly deserved reputation of Oxford for health, refinement, and untiring zeal in behalf of education.

5 The unanimous action of the Board of Directors in placing the College in his charge for ten years.

6. The pupils in attendance at Kittrell's the past session, with scarcely an exception, have been entered for the next session at Oxford, many parents expressing a preference for that location. This fact is most gratifying, and he congratulates himself that his former patrons sustain him with so remarkable a unanimity. He expects, with the help of his former most efficient and accomplished Faculty (all of whom accompany him,) to build up in Oxford a permanent and first-class College for young ladies, one that shall be a joy to the State, and an ornament to the South.

SWEET QUININE

Is a Recent Improvement.

Replaces the use of the BITTER SULPHATE QUININE, with which all are familiar.

Dose for dose, it is

WARRANTED

Fully equal in every way to Bitter Quinine,

AND, LIKE IT, IS THE ONE

Great, Positive, and Unfailing

For all Diseases of Malarious Origin.

Fever and Ague,
Intermittent Fever,
Chill Fever,
Remittent Fever,
Bilious Fever,
Dumb Ague,

and the long train of disorders following these when neglected.

SWEET QUININE

is made solely from Peruvian Bark (so is Bitter Quinine), therefore is of Vegetable origin, and not a Mineral poison, but on the contrary is proved to be one of the elements found in the blood of all healthy persons.

SWEET QUININE

acts as an antidote to, as well as a cure for, malarial or miasmatic poison, the absorption of which by the lungs causes Intermittent Fevers, etc. The only advantage claimed for over the use of old Bitter Quinine is the entire absence of that intense, persistent bitterness, which in the latter is an insurmountable obstacle to its use with most persons, and always with children.

SWEET QUININE

is in two forms—in POWDER, for the use of Physicians and druggists, and FLUID, for use in the family and for the general public.

"HITHERTO I HAVE NOT BEEN A REPUBLICAN."

This was the significant declaration of Mr. Samuel Phillips, when Galloway, the negro, and Billy Henderson the thief, escorted him into the presence of public plunderers where sat Cuffy Mayo, John Ragland and the Republican office holders of the State and Federal government, who assembled at Tucker Hall, Why had he not been a Republican? The inference is because hitherto they had tendered him no office!

Certianly Mr. Phillips had no idea of attending that meeting or making a speech, if the place of Attorney General had not been tendered him. He did not hesitate to express his condemnation of the corruption which was developed under his own eyes by the Bragg Phillips committee. He talked but prudently about the corruption of the Governor's administration; but the Governor heard of it; for the Governor has spies who report conversations on the street, in the parlor and in the bar rooms. These private, but prudent talks of Mr. Phillips, as we are informed, produced a coldness between himself and the Governor.

For some months they spoke when meeting, only by a cold nod of the head; instead of a warm grasp of the hand.

When Mr. Phillips received the nomination for Attorney General, the Governor's son roted aloud "no."

Besides the corruption of his administration, known and talked of by Mr. Phillips, he had other things to remember against the Governor. The University at Chapel Hill is near and dear to every intelligent citizen in the State, except, perhaps, the Governor, Judge Watts, Judge Cantwell, John Ragland, Robert Lassiter, Dr. Walker, and a few Republicans, who talk about the slave oligarchy, and aristocrats, and the rich and the poor.

The old faculty, Professors Phillips, Petter, Hubbard and Martin, were driven out, because of the cry of slave aristocracy, to make room for the free-love, equality, and freedom loving Professors, such as Brewer and Martin.

Chapel Hill and the University should be as sacred and dear to the name of Phillips, as love, religion, liberty and life. It must call up to their minds the dearest and tenderest recollections of which poor humanity is capable. We know how Chapel Hill and the whole State love to dwell upon the sweet-souled piety and pure patriotism of the elder Phillips, over whose precious ashes the tears of North Carolina have not yet ceased to flow.

We know how his eldest son was driven from home and the University he loved so well, to make room for a stranger—for Brewer a camp follower and illiterate teacher of negro schools.

We know with what shame-faced confusion all Chapel Hill hung down their heads, when told that Samuel Field Phillips had, for the office of Attorney General, ceased to practice the lessons of civil liberty, and high toned political morality as taught by Mitchel, Swain, and the elder Phillips, to join in the crusade against the liberties of his own people, and place himself in the company of the plunderers of his own State for office!

In several townships in Edgecombe county all the Registrars and judges of election are Radical candidates.

Who expects anything honest or honorable at the hands of this swindling and roguish administration?

GRANDILOQUENT!

"Behind the lion-hearted war Cassius's dark sea."

We publish the following, to put its author on record. The first paragraph would indicate him without the name:

TO THE PEOPLE OF NORTH CAROLINA.

MY COUNTRYMEN:

For the third time I gird on my sword at the call of my native State. Feeble and sore broken, suffering daily, and at times excruciatingly, from wounds received in two wars, (a) I had hoped to spend the few remaining years of my life in the quiet of domestic retirement; but the Governor of the State, urged by imperative necessity to execute the laws, and put down lawlessness and crime, has demanded my services, and I feel it my duty to obey. (b)

I enter upon this undertaking with earnest prayers to Almighty God, to "direct me in all my doings with His most gracious favor, and further me with His continued help," in an honest and energetic endeavor to restore peace and tranquility, law and order, in North Carolina. (c)

Abroad, our State is considered a den of robbers, murderers, incendiaries, and ravishers. At home, every day brings to our ears tidings of some fresh horror. (d)

In many parts of the state, red handed murder sits sharpening his knife, and glaring with wolfish eyes upon his unsuspecting victim; while Arson waves aloft her blazing torch, and stands ready, at the pointing of a finger, to wrap some peaceful homestead in flames. The laws are scorned, derided, and defied. Men are murdered in our temples of justice; they are hanged in our Court House yards. Peaceable, law-abiding citizens are torn from their beds at night, by bands of armed and disguised men, and barbarously scourged in presence of their families. Night, no longer spreads a canopy of repose over a people sleeping in security, but is to many as the pall of death, and the shadow of the grave; they start at every noise, and tremble at every sound. All this, "in the peace of God, and the State!" The smoke of no enemy's camp rises in our borders; the tramp of no hostile war-horse shakes our soil! (e)

Does not every ingenuous heart cry out "bring forth the men that do these things that we may slay them! beat the Jurassic to seven-fold redness that they may be quickly consumed!" (f)

Alas! no arrests are made. (g) The mace of authority has become a reed of derision. (h) The repeated proclamations of the Governor, warning violators of law, and disturbers of the peace of the consequences of their crimes, and calling upon all good citizens to arrest the guilty parties, are subjects of merriment; (i) and are promptly followed by fresh atrocities. The magistrate trembles as he signs a warrant of arrest, and the sheriff turns pale as he receives it, for both know, full well, that fierce, cruel, and blood thirsty men are ready to strike them down at their first move. (j)

With the civil arm thus paralyzed, and a reign of terror inaugurated in our midst, no course is left but to raise a military force to execute the laws, to protect the lives and property of our citizens, and restore law and order. (k)

The Governor, slow to come to this stern resolve, has issued his commands to me to raise and organize a Regiment for this purpose; and deeply impressed with the necessity and importance of the duty, I enter upon it with alacrity. (l)

I call upon the young men of the State to come forward promptly, and array themselves on the side of law and order.

I call upon the old men to give their aid and countenance to this movement, as the only means of arresting anarchy, and averting civil war. I fear that many of our venerable "silver greys" are not "seeking peace and pursuing it," but, on the contrary, are sowing dragon's teeth, and will transmit to posterity a legacy of hate.—Beloved friends, know ye not that the end of these things is bitterness and death? (m)

It is clear to my mind that North Carolinians are the only proper persons to put down lawlessness and disorder in the State; but if they fail to respond to the call of duty, and patriotism, others will be found to perform the service, and measures harsher, and more to be deprecated will be resorted to. (n)

I solemnly protest that no political considerations influence me in this matter, (o) but that I am actuated solely by a true and honest desire to vindicate the majesty of the law, to support the magistrate in the execution of his duties; and to restore peace and tranquility to our distracted State, now torn by dissension, and brought to the verge of ruin by folly and vice.

In the words of our lamented Gaston:—"When we behold lawless associations asserting the prerogative of vindictive justice; legislating for what they fancy to be crimes; adjudicating on those whom they suppose guilty, and by such rules of evidence as best suit their rage; and executing sentences of denunciation, torture and death, with appalling rapidity; there is, there must be, cause of dread that a spirit is afoot in the land which must be put down, or our fathers have bled in vain, and all that has been won by valor, or treasured by wisdom—all is lost."

That "our offices may be peace, and our exactions righteousness,"—that "violence shall no more be heard in the land, wasting nor destruction within our borders,"—that North Carolina may be peaceful, prosperous, and happy, will be my last prayer upon earth, my first wish in Heaven. (p)

WM. J. CLARKE,
Col. 1st Regiment
North Carolina State Troops.

Newberne, N. C., July 6th, 1870.

a. Get the bartsborne and the camphire, Betsy!

b. Aint you ashamed, Billy, to slander your friend Holden in that way? "Urged by imperious necessity!" You know it is false.

c. You had better stay on your knees, Billy, than gird on your sword. The one becomes you and all Holden's abettors, but the latter does not.

d. Yes, Holden and his satellites have so belied North Carolina, no wonder. Nineteen twentieths of the murders and all the robberies and rapes have been committed by Holden's pets, the "loyal Leagues." He is, or has been, their king, why don't he stop them?

e. The Colonel deals so much in hyperbole that the paragraph sounds as if it were all false. It is high-strained and magniloquent. "No enemy's camp rises in our borders!" Will the camps of Clarke and Kirk, when raised, be anything but camps of enemies? Are they not, with their chief, Holden, the greatest enemies we have to the peace and quiet of North Carolina?

f. Yes, when you find the real perpetrators of these offences, deal with them according to law! But Caesar let twenty guilty go free than punish one innocent person."

g. After whose fault is it? What better evidence do you want, that the State needs new officers, more than soldiers, to put down crime. No one resists the officers of the law; any civil process in the State can be executed by any Sheriff without a gun.

h. Yes; for instance, think of poor Judge Reade!

i. Yes; because often untrue and prompted by partisan feeling.

j. The sentence is an arrant falsehood from beginning to end. Some of the Radical Sheriffs and Justices may be cowardly enough; but there is no good cause for it.

k. No good man of any party in North Carolina believes this. All know that the military is unnecessary.

l. Yes; you are ready to become a tool of Holden, to degrade and ruin your own people for pay!

m. Young and old men, except mercenary hirelings, will not heed you. They know the object of your master is not to put down lawlessness, but to provoke retaliation and resentment, that he may carry the August elections.

n. Why, then, send for Kirk? The truth is, the people of North Carolina have ten times as much confidence in the United States troops, as in Holden's hirelings.—They have no objection to U. S. troops under proper officers.

o. Tell that to the marines, Billy; sailors won't believe you. You need the money and have your price, Billy; there lies the rub.

p. The quotation from Gaston, and from the Bible, are impiety, for which the people of North Carolina will not soon forgive you, Billy.

Some men sink below merited hate, and only excite contempt and pity. May the Lord have mercy on the trio of Billies—Billy Clarke; Billy Holden and Billy Kirk!

"CURSED THROUGH"

Old Uncle Toby said, "our army swore terribly in Flanders," and it is a fact become historical, that "our beloved Governor," did some tall swearing when Judge Pearson ordered his Auditor, Henderson Adams, to jail. But neither of these instances—the one classic English, the other Radical American, could compare in depth breadth and intensity, with the curses heaped upon the somewhat naked cranium of Governor Holden, by the U. S. troops, who marched through Orange county to Roxboro' last week, if we are to place any reliance on the reports given by those lying along the line of march.

The troops found out that they could have gone by Railroad to S. Boston, which would have brought them within fifteen or twenty miles of Roxboro', instead of which they were put off at Hillsboro' and marched across the country; hence the cursing they gave the Governor.

One soldier was asked, why he swore at the Governor so? His reply was, "d—n him, he caused us this long march through Orange, thinking the sight of soldiers would intimidate the people and make them vote to sustain Alex."

We think these soldiers will have fresh cause for "cursing" the Governor, when, after their long march to Roxboro', they will find peace and quiet reigning among a people.

SUPPLEMENTAL OPINION.

We have received the following with a request for its publication:

ATTORNEY GENERAL'S OFFICE,
RALEIGH, N. C., July 9th, 1870.

To the Commissioners thereof:

In counties not districted at last registration, and where material changes are made in the boundaries as to voting places, a new registration will be required.

Respectfully,
L. P. OLDS,
Attorney General.

We think the Attorney General ought to make one more addendum to his opinion, namely, that all who wish to vote in the approaching election, should register between the first Thursday in July and first Thursday in August. This is the law, according to the opinion of the best Jurists with whom we have conversed.

According to the above "supplemental" opinion, every voter in Wake county must register between now and the election, as must those in all other counties "where material changes have been made in the boundaries."

We advise all to register, in every county. That's the safest plan, and we suggest to our friends throughout the State to give the matter their earliest and constant attention, and let Conservatives and Democrats thus forestall any adverse decision hereafter.

PERSON COUNTY.

The full Conservative ticket for Person county is as follows:

For the Senate—W. A. Bradsher.
For the House of Representatives—Henry T. Jordan.
For Sheriff—John L. Norris.
For Register—John W. Hunt.
For Treasurer—G. D. Satterfield.
For Surveyor—John H. Clay.
For Coroner—R. A. Williams.
For Commissioners—Jos. O. Bradsher, W. G. Winstead, J. T. Yancey, James Holeman, Jr., and W. C. Satterfield.

A correspondent says: "There was the utmost degree of harmony and good feeling in the nominating Convention. We expect to carry the county by several hundred majority. The Reds held their nominating Convention to-day. They hope to give weight to their ticket by raiding into our ranks. Doubtless, they will find one or two so office-hungry as to accept nominations from them, but I think the dodge will fail. Our people are a unit, or nearly so.

A company of U. S. soldiers marched in yesterday evening. They seem to be a jolly, good natured and polite set of fellows.—Say they don't know why they are here; expected to find a general riot going on."

The residence of J. A. Evans, Esq., near Town Creek, Brunswick county, was entirely destroyed by fire on the 3rd inst.

The fire is supposed to be the work of an incendiary.

A very large wolf was recently killed in Buncombe county.

HAVE WE A CONSTITUTION?

Were it not for acts transpiring around us daily, this might seem an irrelevant question. We have a constitution, on paper, and we have a Governor who has taken an oath to support it. How does his actions comport with his oath?

The Constitution declares the Governor shall have power to call out the militia to execute the laws, suppress riots or insurrection and to repel invasion. Where has the execution of the laws been resisted? Who has invaded us, except Kirk of Tennessee? Where is there a riot to be suppressed?

Article XIII, sec. 3, of the Constitution, declares that no money shall be drawn from the Treasury but in consequence of appropriations made by law.

The Treasurer disregards this solemn provision of the fundamental law of the State, and pays out thousands upon the warrant of the Governor, without any law making the appropriation. He should remember that this is an impeachable offence, and he and his securities may yet be made to answer for the money paid out in violation of the constitution and the law.

But, who is on the Treasurer's bond? Is Dewesse, Lafin, Rich "and such like," why, of course there will be no use in seeking a remedy.

COUNTY CONVENTION.

The Conservatives of Iredell county assembled in Convention at Statesville on the 4th inst., at which Jas. S. Beatty, Esq., was called to the Chair, and C. L. Shinn and E. B. Drake, were appointed Secretaries.

A committee of one from each township was appointed by the Chair to select candidates for the various officers to be filled.

After a short absence the committee returned and made the following report which was adopted as a whole:

House of Representatives—Thos. A. Nicholson and J. Henry Hill.
County Commissioners—A. D. Sharpe, W. I. Colvert, J. M. Turner, C. L. Shinn and James S. Beatty.
Sheriff—Wm. P. Watson.
Treasurer—Charles A. Carlton.
Register of Deeds—Wm. D. Summers.
Coroner—Wm. L. Stevenson.
County Surveyor—Charles R. Jones.

After the adoption of resolutions denunciatory of the corruption of the present administration and expressing indignation at Gov. Holden's declaration of war upon the people of the State, the Convention adjourned.

For the Sentinel.

UNIVERSITY OF VA., June 30, 1870.

MR. EDITOR:—It would be doing an injustice to the old North State and to one of her most brilliant sons, to omit some mention of the address delivered before the Chi Phi Fraternity, on the evening of the 25th, by Mr. Eph. H. Bustee, of your city. The audience which greeted that gentleman was full, though select; and the close attention paid, during the entire oration, was as complimentary as it was unusual. The subject of his remarks was "freedom of thought." The treatment of it was bold, original and singularly logical; displaying a culture, and power of thought far beyond his years. To this add the chastest of styles, the pathos of the true orator, and the sparklings of humor, which he dashed aside so gracefully to the ladies to pacify them during scientific speculations; and you can readily arrive at the conclusion that he won new laurels for himself and made his clubmates, friends and fellow statesmen, proud of him. Mr. Busbee concluded his remarks with a beautiful and touching allusion to his fraternity, Chi Phi, its objects and achievements. Then sweet music was discoursed by the U. S. Marine Band, after which the audience returned to their respective homes, not to forget the effort they had so enthusiastically applauded, as is so often the case, but to sanction, by thoughtful reflection, the spontaneous burst of applause with which they had received it. As he wished, in closing, for the Chi Phi, so say his Virginia clubmates for his happiness and his fame, "Esto Perpetua."

A VIRGINIAN.

THE NEW CANDIDATE FOR KING OF SPAIN. Cable telegrams concerning candidates for the vacant crown at Madrid do not seem to excite as much interest as they did—certainly not on this side of the Atlantic. Still, there are a few people who, when they read that General Prim or Count Bismarck, or some one else has named a Prince of the house of Hohenzollern as the "coming man" for King of Spain, may naturally ask "Who is he?" It may be well enough, therefore, to say that the Hohenzollerns are princes out of active business at home, waiting to be called upon to "reign over" other people; that their paternal residence is at Dusseldorf; that there seems to be two available princes of this house, viz: the hereditary prince Leopold-Stephen Charles Anthony, &c., born 22d September, 1835, now a Colonel in the Prussian Guards; and Frederick-Eugene-John, &c., born 25th June, 1848, and now commanding a squadron of Lancers in Westphalia. A brother of these two princes (Caesar I) is the reigning sovereign of Roumania. Their grandmother, on the mother's side, was the Vicountess De Beauharnais, an adopted daughter of Napoleon I; and their grandmother, on the father's side, was the Princess Maria Antoinette-Murat. Thus it will be seen that while they are Prussian, by nationality, they are Napoleonic by family connection and tradition. It looks like a junction of interests by Bismarck and Louis Napoleon.

NEW SYSTEM,

devised by its talented and distinguished Actuary CHAS. N. MORGAN, which must make it the leading Company in America, for persons in and all who appreciate and demand the most UNQUESTIONABLE SECURITY, at rates in most cases considerably lower than those of the leading Mutual Cash Companies.

The Excelsior issues Policies on all the plans of Mutual or Stock Companies, extending to policy holders, all the really desirable advantages. Its policies being non-forfeiting, the insured are privileged to live and travel where they please in any healthy part of the world, they participate in its profits, are allowed 30 days grace for payment of premium, a cash surrender value of policy, and a privilege which has never been offered by any other Company, that of converting Policies into after the payment of 5 or more annual premiums.

As Hithe to I have been restricted in the very popular Company which I had the honor to represent to Stock Rates alone, which rendered the Mutual, and mixed Companies have adopted. This disadvantage, together with the multiplication of many new Companies in this State who claimed to possess unusual charms, together with the extraordinary attractions presented by the Excelsior induced me to accept the management of that Company whose plan combines all the popular features of other Companies, represented in this state, without an exception, and the additional privilege of converting policies, which the holder can not afford to keep up, or wishes to discontinue, because of the death of those for whose benefit the policy was secured, into an Annuity Bond which provides an income to such Group's life, or for a series of years as is agreed.

Circulars giving full explanations and any other information, will be cheerfully furnished.

The most liberal arrangements will be made with first class solicitors, to push the Excelsior forward in the Old North State, to that position which her low rates and most ample security entitle her to occupy.

NEW ADS.—Davis, Drake & Co. of Petersburg, jobbers in Dry Goods and yankee notions, we refer retail dealers to their advertisement.

We will finish our report of the laying of the corner stone of the new engine house, to morrow. We actually have not had time to write it out yet.

PEACHES AND MILK.—We know it is early to be talking about such things, even in this favored latitude. Some two weeks ago, when we, ahead of the town, had green corn and tomatoes for dinner, some were disposed to doubt their being the growth of the present season. When assured that they were, then they suggested that they came from some point further South.—They hated to acknowledge that we were ahead of them. Now, we had peaches and milk for dinner to-day; genuine fresh peaches; none of your canned fruit; neither were they bought in the market, but gathered from a tree in the garden at home, and they were really nice. We don't mention the circumstance in any spirit of boasting, but merely to let people abroad know what a glorious climate we have here, and to make the mouths of brother locals water, when they read this paragraph.

SHORTEN THEM! SHORTEN THEM!—We have on hand a number of communications, some of which we would like to publish, but their great length and our limited space make it difficult to get them in. We like to get communications from our friends in the various parts of the State, but then, we want them short and to the point, with responsible names to them. We have some on hand which lack this last prerequisite, and they go into the scrap basket.

Give us facts—interesting facts—with as few words as will possibly do to express them. We must economise space from now until the election.

Convenient and Simple.—"Brown's Bronchial Troches" are a simple and convenient form for administering, in combination, several medicinal substances held in general esteem among physicians in the treatment of Bronchial affections and Coughs. The Troches seldom fail to give relief.

A Message to the Ladies.—It is not necessary to cost the faded fibers with filth, or to stain the skin, in order to renew in your blanching ringlets the lustrous hue of their prime. PHALON'S VITALIA OR SALVATION FOR THE HAIR, as clear and transparent a fluid as that which sparkles in your cologne bottles, effects the change more satisfactorily than any other preparation in the world.

Why Do You Cough?

When it is in your power to relieve yourself; a few doses of DR. TUTT'S EXPECTORANT will cure you and allay the apprehensions of your friends; moreover, it is pleasant to take, it produces no nausea, and strengthens the Lungs and throat to resist attacks in the future. Mothers need not dread the Croup when they have a bottle of this valuable compound on their Mantlepiece.

ANOTHER OUTRAGE.

On Friday or Saturday, a warrant was issued by U. S. Commissioner, Shaffer, for the arrest of Norman Johnson, and Buck Sloan, of Chatham; D. C. Stephens, John Pegram, Wm. Pegram and Wm. Trulove, of Harnett; and Carey Norris, David Stephens and John Stephens, of Wake, and placed in the hands of Deputy Marshal Basher, who, with a posse of U. S. soldiers, (unnecessarily called in) arrested the above parties and brought them to the city yesterday, and, without a hearing, and refusing bail, thrust them into prison.

To-day at 10 o'clock, A. M, they were brought before the Commissioner for examination, together with Marion Cross and George Sloan, of Chatham county, and J. H. Prince, of Harnett county who were included in the warrant, but were not arrested with the others, but who came in to-day, having heard the warrant was out against them, and gave themselves up.

The warrant charges them, on the oath of Joseph Dennis and Hardy Stewart with violation of the late act of Congress, in regard to the intimidation of voters, by disguising themselves and going to the house of Wyatt Prince, colored, and committing an assault on said Prince with a deadly weapon.

The witnesses examined were Harriet Prince and Priscilla Norris, colored, whose testimony was of the most flimsy and contradictory character. So much so that eight of the parties were dismissed, and the other four held to bail, which was given, to answer at the next term of the U. S. Circuit Court.

We have neither time nor space to give further particulars to-day. The parties recognized are Buck Sloan, Norman Johnson, Wm. Trulove, and George Sloan.

We may, perhaps, give the evidence, and make some further allusion to the matter to-morrow.

HIFALUTIN.—Parish's speech last week at Pittsboro', as reported by our correspondent, "Chatham;" and Col. Clarke's circular, as recently published in the Newbern Times, reminds us of "Lord Chesterfield," whom many of our readers will remember as a general favorite and most polite servant, at the "Buffalo," and "Shocco" Springs, a number of years ago, and who was wont to express his ideas in most grandiloquent phraseology.

On one occasion at Buffalo, "Chesterfield" called on a very damp morning, at a room occupied by a number of young gentlemen, with fresh water and towels. One of the boys enquired of him the state of the weather. He replied, in his usual style, "I can't say, my master, but de intense frigidity ob de circumambulatin atmosphere is quite detrimental to de physical sensibilities."

The interrogator expressed his thanks for the information, in equally hifalutin language, when "Chesterfield" turned on them with, "gentlemen, I don't understand your high confroductions."

R. S. C. Y.—A friend has laid on our table a small four-pence-ha'-penny size newspaper, published tri-weekly at Washington, N. C., under the title of "R. S. C. Y." The title is cabalistic and, its politics Radical. We have given some little care to find out the occult signification of these letters, and have arrived at the conclusion that they mean "Renegade-Scalawag, Carpet-bag-Yankee."

PRISON REFORM.—We have received, with the compliments of Dr. Wines, of New York, through Dr. E. Grissom, of this city, a pamphlet copy of a programme adopted for the National Congress on "Penitentiary Reformatory Discipline," to be held in Cincinnati in October next. The programme takes a wide range, and we should like to give it a more extended notice, had we the space to do so.

On Friday afternoon, the corner stone of the new Lutheran church in Charlotte, was laid with appropriate ceremonies. Mr. Aldrich delivered the address.

The Mecklenburg Conservative County Convention which assembled in Charlotte on Saturday last, for the purpose of selecting a Senatorial candidate, in the place of Hon. Z. B. Vance, declined, unanimously nominated Col. H. C. Jones.

Our Mecklenburg friends could not have made a more judicious choice. Col. Jones made them a faithful and good representative in the last Legislature.

Kirk and a battallion of ragmuffins, (vclept "militia," passed through Salisbury on Saturday.

Robbers are driving a brisk trade in Kinston.

Last week for four nights successively different houses were entered and robbed.

H. C. Hampton Esq., is the Conservative nominee for the House of Representatives in Surry county.

Mr. Joseph J. Bowden of Wilmington, says that the publication of his name as a Lieutenant in Holden's Militia was unwarranted by him, and that he never has and never will have an affiliation with the Radical party.

LIFE INSURANCE.—Everybody, married or single, should have their lives insured, so as to leave something behind them for their families. If a man insures his life when he is young, the premium is not near so much as when he gets older. Few people notice this, but keep putting it off until the premium is more than they care to pay, and then they do not insure at all. The longer you postpone it, the more it will cost you when you decide to assure; or your health may decline, and you may be unable to pass the required medical examination; or life may suddenly end. All we have to say in this: if you wish to insure your life in a good and reliable company, go to the Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company, SAMUEL DOUGLAS WAIT, General Agent, opposite the Post Office.

DIED,

On the 28th June last at her residence, 7 miles North of this city, Mrs. GILLY JEFFREYS, aged 84 years, 6 months and 25 days.

She was the mother of nine children, eight of whom she raised and 8 of whom she survived, she died in perfect Christian faith, which for more than 20 years she had professed. Her friends, neighbors, grand children and great grand children, will sadly miss the warm greetings, which for 60 years, she was wont to extend to their parents and them, from that venerated family residence.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT NO Convicts sentenced to imprisonment for a period less than three years, will be received into th Penitentiary. County authorities will save time and expense by noting this fact.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, July 9.—The Senate confirmed the following to-day: John D. Pope, Attorney for the district of Georgia, vice Akerman; G. F. Peek, collector of internal revenue for the 2nd North Carolina district; W. B. Richard, for the 3rd North Carolina district.

In the legislative appropriation bill a provision has been inserted prohibiting the Court of Claims from entertaining suits brought against the Government by residents of the Southern States, even though they can plead a restoration to all civil rights by amnesty or pardon. They must show affirmatively that they were always loyal, or they must go to Congress for relief.

Revenue receipts up-day $634,000.

The naturalization treaty with England has been ratified.

Senator Norton of Minnesota, is hopelessly sick.

The Senate Conference Committee will report favorably on the New York postal affair.

No Southern nominations to-day.

Some surprise is entertained at Blaine's delay in naming the Georgia Conference Committee. It is understood that Blaine and Butler are not in harmony on Georgia.

SENATE.—The Chinese question and Mrs. Lincoln's pension were discussed. Mr. Yates impeached Mrs. Lincoln's loyalty.

The army appropriation bill was passed.

The Senate is in session to night.

HOUSE.—The tax bill as amended by the Senate was concurred in as regards the income, allowing metallic tobacco packages and a towing articles transported from ports of entry to other ports in bond and reducing duty on steel rails; and non-concurring in the amendments regarding oranges, lemons, prunes and other tropical fruits; also the amendment regarding sugars; also spices, wines and brandies; also taxing cotton tagging. The bill goes to the Committee of Conference.

Mr. Paine issued the warrant for Pat Woods' imprisonment.

VIRGINIA.

RICHMOND, July 9.—The Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad to day purchased from the estate the Blue Ridge Railroad on that road, paying the State $600,000 in State bonds.

NEW YORK.

SARATOGA, July 9.—One hundred and fifty horses are here training for the races which are to commence Thursday.

FOREIGN.

LONDON, July 9.—The following Berlin rumors and additional opinions are gathered from many sources by telegraph to-day:

The North German Berlin Gazette, in its leading article to-day says: "The French press is impudent and wild over the action taken by Prussia on the Spanish question. The selection of Prince Hohenzollern depends solely on the Spanish Cortes, and not on wishes of foreign powers."

Paris is considerably excited to-day by rumors that Prussia is actively arming at all Baltic ports. The corps d'armee, now operating against the rebels in Algeria under General Wimpffen, has been recalled.

The Gazette de France, Paris, says: "The Duke de Gramont's declaration in the Corps Legislatif recently is equivalent to the French ultimatum. The present situation is the result of Bismark's intrigues."

The Journal des Debats of Paris, says the policy of the French Government, on the Spanish question, threatens to make all the Spaniards unite on the Prince of Hohenzollern.

Prime Minister Ollivier, yesterday, assured the French Senate that the act of the crown to a Prussian was the act of General Prim, and was not binding on the Spanish Government.

PARIS, July 9.—The Bourse opened excited this morning. Rentes 70f. 25c.—or 25 centimes lower than closing figures last night.

The French Minister of War has issued an order to all Generals commanding requiring them to report to the War office immediately the condition of the troops, arms and ammunition, &c., in their respective departments.

LATER.—The excitement on the streets is increasing, and the Bourse is very much excited. Rentes declining on last sales 69 francs 85 centimes; or 75 centimes below the opening, and 67 centimes lower than any figures made during the crisis here. There is great anxiety at Toulon and other French ports on the Mediterranean, and a large number of transports are being fitted out to bring home the French army now in Algeria.

BERLIN, July 9.—Baron Werther, Minister of Prussia to France, has not been recalled. In official circles here the situation is thought to be free from danger. Bismark is not implicated in the Hohenzollern affair. Napoleon's attempts to hold him responsible is regarded as a pretext.

Monday Evening Dispatches.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, July 11.—A special to the Herald dated London July 10th says: "Military preparations were going on all last night in Paris. If the candidature of Prince Leopold is not withdrawn within the next 24 hours, the French ministers will be recalled from Berlin and Madrid, and War will be declared.

Dispatches from various European Capitals this morning announce the excitement increasing, particularly in moneyed circles. All sorts of securities have declined heavily."

FOREIGN.

PLYMOUTH, July 11.—Several Prussian iron clads, recently riding at anchor at this, port were ordered to the Baltic, yesterday, but to day the order was countermanded and the vessels sailed towards Cherbourg.

PARIS, July 11.—The Monitour announces that it will no longer give publicity to the movement of troops.

Prussia's answer is momentarily expected.

BERLIN, July 11.—A semi-official journal says: "France persists in the insult to Prussia by holding Prussia responsible for Hohenzollern's candidature."

A New Discovery!!

OR,

Salvation for the Hair.

CLEAR AS WATER!
WITHOUT SEDIMENT!!
OPEN TO THE LIGHT!!!

For Restoring to Gray Hair its Original Color.

PHALON'S "VITALIA" differs utterly from all the hair coloring preparations heretofore used. It is limpid, sweet smelling, precipitates no muddy or slimy matter, requires no shaking, imparts no stain to the skin. Hold it to the light and it is clear and cloudless. It leaves no mark on the scalp; yet it reproduces in gray hair the natural color that time or sickness may have bleached out of it.

Phalon's Vitalia

is for one sole purpose, that of reproducing, with absolute certainty, the natural color of the hair. It is not intended as a daily dressing, nor for removing scurf or dandruff; nor for curing baldness; nor for stimulating the growth of the hair.—These objects may be accomplished after the color has been fixed with the Vitalia, by Phalon's Chemical Hair Invigorator.

THE VITALIA is a harmless and unequaled preparation for the reproduction of the original hue of gray hair, and nothing else. This is accomplished in from two to ten applications, according to the depth of shade required. Sold by all druggists.

THE EQUITABLE

HAS BECOME THE LEADING COMPANY OF THE WORLD.

Its New Business (sum assured), for the year 1869, exceeded that of the second company in rank by more than THIRTEEN MILLION DOLLARS.

In 1860 it was the 9th Company in new business for the year; in 1861 it was the 8th; in 1862 and 1863, the 7th; in 1864 and 1865 the 6th; in 1866, the 4th; in 1867, the 3d; in 1868, the 2nd;

In 1869 it was the FIRST.

The insuring public should not allow itself to be deceived with regard to the term "Annual Dividends." Many companies using this expression mean that their dividends are "annual" AFTER THEY ONCE BEGIN TO PAY THEM AT ALL; but they DO NOT BEGIN TO PAY until the settlement of the third, fourth, or fifth premium.

One hundred Dollars paid in dividends at the end of one year, and each year thereafter, equals FOUR HUNDRED AND THIRTY-SIX DOLLARS paid at the end of FOUR YEARS, interest at six per cent.

Applications for Assurance may be made to any of the Society Agents throughout the country, or in person or by letter to the General Agents.

PAIN KILLER

This Valuable Family Medicine has been widely and favorably known in our own and foreign countries upwards of

THIRTY YEARS!

It has lost none of its good name by repeated trials, but continues to occupy a prominent position in every family medicine chest.

It is an External and Internal Remedy. For Summer Complaint, or any other form of bowel disease in children or adults, it is an almost certain cure, and has without doubt, been more successful in curing the various kinds of cholera than any other known remedy, or the most skilful physician. In India, Africa and China, where this dreadful disease is more or less prevalent, the Pain Killer is considered by the natives, as well as European residents in those climates a sure remedy; and while it is a most prompt remedy for pain, it is a perfect safe medicine, even in unskillful hands. Directions accompany each bottle.

Sold by all Druggists.

Price 25 cts., 50 cts., and $1 per bottle.

THE AMERICAN COMBINATION Button Hole & Sewing Machine

Has been honored with the highest award in premiums and diplomas wherever entered for competition at fairs and exhibitions held during the past season.

THE SIMPLICITY, EASE AND CERTAINTY with which this machine operates as well as the uniform excellence of its work, throughout the entire range of Sewing, in

Stitching, Hemming, Felling, Tucking, Cording, Braiding Quilting, Gathering & Sewing on, Overseaming, Embroidering on the Edge, and its Beautiful Button-Hole and Eyelet Hole Work, Place it unquestionably far in advance of any other similar invention.

It is also the CHEAPEST intrinsically, as well as the BEST, since it is really TWO MACHINES combined in one, (by a simple and beautiful mechanical arrangement never before accomplished by human ingenuity,) making either the Lock stitch or Double Thread Chain, as occasion may require. It is, at the same time, simple in construction, comparitively noiseless, easily understood, and in a word it combines with these ADVANTAGES, EXCLUSIVELY KNOWN, THE MOST DESIRABLE QUALITIES OF ALL OTHERS.

The public are invited to examine this remarkable machine at Mrs. TOMPKINS' Boarding House, (Mrs. Thompson's old stand,) Fayetteville Street, and at Wadsworth Photographic Gallery.

NON-EXPLOSIVE COMBINATION BURNING FLUID

THE CHEAPEST, BEST AND SAFEST ILLUMINATING AGENT IN THE WORLD!!

Protected by Copy right for 28 years from May 9th 1868.

The above Fluid has been in constant use for upwards of three years, and has sustained its unrivalled reputation, as a brilliant, non-explosive illuminating agent, though subjected to the severest tests. Being universally conceded to be superior to Kerosene or Coal Oil. It makes a better light and more of it, than any other illuminating compound. Soft, clear, steady and unobjectionable to the eyes. All that is asked is, a fair and impartial trial.

Among the numerous testimonials received read the following:

PHILADELPHIA, March 15th, 1869.

The undersigned, having witnessed the experiments of Messrs. Hale & Co., with their Combination Burning Fluid, take pleasure in commending it to the public. The various tests to which the Fluid was subjected, was in the highest degree satisfactory. We have no hesitation in pronouncing it to be a safe and brilliant illuminating agents. Its cheapness added to its other good qualities, should insure its introduction into every family in the country, where Kerosene Oil is used.

A. BALDING'S PATENT GLASS SUBMERGED DOUBLE-ACTING FORCE PUMP.

SUBSTITUTE FOR A FIRE ENGINE.

THIS Pump will pump 30 gallons of water per minute, will never cut out the packing, has no friction, no water ever stands in its pipes to freeze, and is less liable to get out of order than any other pump now used. It can be set up in a short time by any ordinary mechanic.

The No. 3 pump for yard wells will be sold at from $20 to $30, capable of throwing 30 gallons of water per minute. The price of No. 2 for railroad stations, throwing 60 gallons per minute, will be given upon application.

Having the exclusive right to this pump for the states of North and South Carolina, and having established a factory for the manufacture of them at Wilson, N. C., I will receive orders for them at Wilson, and will ship them by Express C. O. D., or, if the money is sent me, by the regular freight. The number of feet in the depth of the well must be given in all cases.

MR. J. L. KITCHIN:

DEAR SIR.—We certify that the "Balding Pumps" put up by you in the town of Scotland Neck are a perfect success. They pump very rapidly, and by attaching hose, will throw water from 40 to 60 feet and would prove invaluable in case of fire.

POLICIES VALUABLE IN LIFE, AS WELL AS AT DEATH!!

THE BROOKLYN LIFE, IS THE ONLY COMPANY IN AMERICA, WHICH GUARANTEES

DEFINITE CASH SURRENDER VALUES,

IN CASE A POLICY IS FORFEITED FOR NON-PAYMENT OF PREMIUM.

The BROOKLYN LIFE enjoys the highest reputation for judgment of investment, economy of management, and skill and care in the selection of risks,—upon which elements of administration the security of a Life Insurance Corporation depends.

The laws of New York compel Companies in that State to calculate the Cash value of their Policies, each and every year, and a certain legal standard of reserve and accumulation must be held by the Companies to meet all their liabilities.

Insurers in looking around for Companies in which to insure, should carefully seek for this important safeguard. It will be found in the BROOKLYN LIFE.

Gen'l. S. B. BUCKNER,	Manager Southern Dep't.

The Globe has peculiar claims upon the Southern country, from having first introduced the non-forfeiting feature in all its policies. Its President, Mr. Pliny Freeman, was the inventor of the ten-year, non-forfeiture plan, and introduced it in the Company with which he was then connected.

The Globe takes no notes; but receives its premiums in cash, and pays its policies in cash, without deduction.

To those desiring it, the Company will issue policies, registered and certified by the Superintendent of the Insurance Department of New York, as "secured by pledge of public stock."
